These open faced sandwiches are a New Year's Eve tradition in the Czech Republic & Slovak Republic. I only prepare these once a year and that is on New Year's Eve, as was done when I was a growing up and I have always kept it that way. But of course these can be prepared for any sort of occasion. I have added the recipes for some of the more traditional toppings.

Czech Open Faced Sandwiches/ Obložené Chlebičky

In-between meals, Czech people are used to eating snacks, some as quick as a sandwich, and others prepared hot as side dishes for other meals. Sandwiches usually have cheese and ham in their composition, mayonnaise, and sometimes ketchup and mustard. Fresh tomatoes or cucumbers will only be used...
