Gypsy By Carter

Gypsy by Carter Scholz: a long novella about an earth in ruins from greedy plutocrats (etc), and the brave rebels who built the first starship, to escape the mess. Except the starship barely works. [SPOILER WARNING!] The crew mostly die off en route. The ship suffers multiple failures, and fails to land at the New Promised Land. BUT...

Gypsy by Carter Scholz - Goodreads

"The eponymous science fiction novella Gypsy is the brilliant and heart-wrenching centerpiece of this three-story collection by Carter Scholz. In Gypsy, we meet a band of renegade scientists and explorers brought together in secret by a wealthy visionary. Their mission is to build a starship and develop the technologies necessary to get them to ...

Gypsy by Carter Scholz My rating: 4 of 5 stars Humanity reaching out into space remains a recurring fascination. Sometimes this action is one of optimism and scientific expansionism. At other times, it's a defensive tactic of desperation as Earth becomes unbearable and unlivable. This sci-fi novella stands as a blend of the two.As Earth...

Gypsy by Carter Scholz - PM Press Outspoken Author Series

Pro: Many of the technical elements are well-thought-through.Each of the stewards deals with a reasonable, respectable, challenge on awaking, and the story reaches a logical ending. Con: But that ending is terrible.We're dragged through 20,000 words, only to learn "they missed it by that much."Worse, despite everything else in the book telling us that the people on Earth were hopeless, that ...

The Allmusic review by Richard S. Ginell says, "Chasin' the Gypsy, as you might guess, is an homage to Django Reinhardt, whose music Carter used to dig on Detroit radio when he was a teenager, but Carter doesn't take the predictable reverent path in paying his respects ... this is a delightful departure for Carter, though probably destined to ...
