Living Narrative Creating Lives In

At memoir workshops and conferences, eager people with bright faces rush up and tell me about their personal stories. "I have to write this. I have to get it out of me!" Then, they get serious. "There's so much to tell, I don't know where to start!" I love hearing their juicy stories, but they have so many questions. In this article, Linda Joy Myers teaches writers how to begin ...

Beginning Your Memoir and Creating Your Narrative Arc

A narrative is a report of connected events, real or imaginary, presented in a sequence of written or spoken words, sounds, still or moving images, or a combination of these or other such sensory experiences. The word derives from the Latin verb narrare, "to tell", which is derived from the adjective gnarus, "knowing" or "skilled".. Narrative can be organized in a number of thematic or formal ...

The Genesis creation narrative is the creation myth of both Judaism and Christianity. The narrative is made up of two stories, roughly equivalent to the first two chapters of the Book of Genesis. In the first, Elohim (the Hebrew generic word for God) creates the heavens and the Earth in six days, then rests on, blesses and sanctifies the seventh. In the second story, God, now referred to by the ...
