We Fought Back

Young Resisters in the Holocaust. When the Nazis invaded their homes and killed their friends and families, these real-life teens went on the run and joined up with resisters known as partisans. These brave men and women used guerilla warfare and sabotage, from blowing up supply trains to attacking convoys, to thwart the Nazis.

Book Review. We Fought Back is the story of how one community took on city hall and won. Most have heard the old adage, you can't fight city hall. The residents of Cox's Landing and Lesage, West Virginia proved that with determination, you can fight and you can win. When a proposal was brought forth to take the property...
